BEFORE THE GAME

By Steve Snapp

Assistant Sports Information Director

The Big Ten's 7-2-1 record against non-conference foes last weekend may have come as a surprise to some, but not to anyone who attended the Big Ten Kickoff Luncheon last August in Chicago.

At that gathering all ten head coaches (actually nine with George Hill substituting for the Buckeyes' Woody Hayes who was still recovering from his June 6 heart attack) expressed genuine optimism about the 1974 season.

"It's been the Big Two and the Little Eight for the past few years, but that's going to change and maybe this year," warned one mentor. "As I look around the Conference I see an overall improvement in the league. There is definitely better balance this year than we have had in several years."

First year Iowa coach Bob Commings added, "This team may not have won a game last year but don't take us lightly this year. When you play Iowa you had better be ready for a football game."

So saying, Commings' Hawkeyes went out last week and knocked off U.C.L.A. 21-10 in what has to be the biggest surprise of the 1974 season.

Perhaps taking their cue from Iowa, Wisconsin and Illinois pulled off a couple of surprises of their own. Wisconsin spilled fourth-rated Nebraska 21-20 and Illinois traveled to Stanford to dump the Cardinals 41-7.

Those wins, coupled with Ohio State's 51-10 victory over Oregon State, Michigan's 31-0 demolition of Colorado and Michigan State's 19-0 whitewashing of Syracuse, should help silence some of the critics of Big Ten football who have been so vocal in recent years.

Last weekend was a big one for the Big Ten in more ways than one.

Today's meeting with Southern Methodist has a special meaning for Woody Hayes. SMU was Woody's first opponent in 1951 when he launched his coaching career at Ohio State.

The Buckeyes won that game 7-0 and have since won four more encounters with the Mustangs under Hayes. In all the two schools have met six times with SMU winning just once, a 32-27 decision in 1950.

But today's SMU team bears little resemblance to those in years past. Under third-year coach Dave Smith, the Mustangs have abandoned their wide open aerial attack of a decade ago and gone to a ground oriented wishbone offense. The only throwing so far by this team has been to keep opposing defenses honest. In fact, quarterback Ricky Wesson has put the ball into the air just ten times in two games.

The new attack has been successful. The Mustangs have recorded two straight winning seasons and are 2-0 this year with wins over North Texas State and Virginia Tech.

Wesson is the key to the offensive attack. The SMU wishbone is geared to getting him to the outside where he can utilize his exceptional speed. Halfback Wayne Morris also has good speed and gives the Mustangs a good one-two punch in the backfield.

Up front there is a line that averages 237 pounds from tackle to tackle and 6-5, 215-pounder Oscar Roan at tight end is considered a good bet for All-American honors.

On defense there is plenty of size, too, with 6-5, 270 Louie Kelcher the biggest and the best at middle guard. Eight regulars return on defense and Ohio State assistant coach Mickey Jackson calls it a sound and very physical unit.

The Buckeyes are also 2-0 and after last week's victory have taken over the number one spot in both wire service polls.

Hayes was pleased with the Buckeyes' showing against Oregon, although he didn't relish the idea of five fumbles.

"We haven't scrimmaged enough this fall and that accounts for the fumbles," explains Hayes. "We will get better soon. Don't worry."

Noting that fullbacks Pete Johnson and Champ Henson carried the ball a combined total of 15 times against Oregon State, Woody promised to get his two earth movers more action in the future.

We aren't running our fullbacks nearly enough," he said. "We have to change that."

Doug France, converted from tackle to tight end this year, was named lineman of the week following last week's game. The Dayton senior graded out to 75 per cent against Oregon State.

On defense linebacker Bruce Elia was lineman of the week with 11 tackles.

Archie Griffin's 134 yards last week gave him 2711 for his career and marked the 13th straight game that the Buckeye tailback has surpassed the 100 yard mark.

Back of the Week

RAY GRIFFIN — TAILBACK — Two years ago it was Archie Griffin who made a spectacular debut in Ohio Stadium. Last week, it was his younger brother, Ray, who had more than 86,000 fans leaning forward in their seats. Playing in his first varsity game, freshman Ray, slammed through the Oregon State defense in typical Griffin style for two touchdowns on runs of nine and 12 yards in the Buckeyes' 51-10 victory. The 5-9, 174-pounder totaled 22 yards in his first varsity competition and gave indications of great things to come.

Buck of the Week

STEVE LUKE — DEFENSIVE HALFBACK — Had just five tackles against Oregon State, but that only tells a small part of the story. The Massillon senior, who is starting his second year as a regular after being converted from offensive center, also had a pass interception and deflected three other passes to lead the Buckeye defense. Always a fierce tackler, Steve is proving to opposing defenses that he is also a better than average pass defender. Oregon State learned the hard way. The Beavers tried to go deep on Steve three times and failed on each occasion.

SMU PLAYERS TO WATCH

LOUIS KELCHER — MIDDLE GUARD — At 6-5 and 270, Kelcher figures to be one of the biggest defensive linemen the Buckeyes will meet in 1974. Considered one of the best defensive linemen in the Southwest Conference. Earned all-conference honors two years ago as a sophomore. A badly sprained ankle limited his mobility somewhat last year but he still had 58 tackles and led the team in tackles for losses with 11. Played tackle last year, but moved to middle guard in the spring.

WAYNE MORRIS — HALFBACK — A junior who is in his third year as a starter for the Mustangs. Missed three games last year with a knee injury and still finished with 616 yards rushing and a fancy 5.6 yard average per carry. Was the leading freshman rusher in the country two years ago, picking up 884 yards on 175 carries. His freshman total was the fourth best rushing total in SMU history. Picked up 154 yards in his first college game. Has speed and power.

LOCAL SPORTSWRITER'S CAREER

By TOM KEYS
Sports Editor
Columbus Citizen-Journal

Editor's Note: Tom Keys, sports editor of the Columbus Citizen-Journal, has covered Ohio State football for 30 years. His colorful career spans the exploits of Buckeye players from Horvath to Griffin and includes some of Ohio State's greatest football moments. In the following article, he recalls some of his most exciting memories as a sportswriter.

Ohio State has played 256 football games since I saw the Buckeyes in action that first time in the early fall of 1935.

I'm thankful all the games I've seen weren't a carbon copy of that first one, a game many now refer to as "the Drake relays."

By the time all scores were added up and all broken bodies had been shipped off to the hospital, Francis Schmidt's second Ohio State team, under Captain Gomer Jones, had wiped up the field with Drake, 85 to 7.

Three games later that fall I had an invitation to watch from the Notre Dame bench as the Buckeyes and Irish matched strategy and scores in a game that is accepted as a classic anywhere intercollegiate football is played. But I had a chance to earn the princely sum of $2.50 working the one day for a furniture store in Wheeling, W. Va., so there was no football for me that day. Of course, all I missed was the 18-13 Notre Dame victory, scored when the Irish made up a 13-0 deficit by scoring three times in the final period. How heavy were the burdens of depression day youth!

But I was asked by Ohio State's assistant sports information director, Steve Snapp, to jot down a few highlights on games I have seen during my 30 years as a sports writer here . . . not about the ones that got away.

It was my good fortune to be covering Ohio State football, for the first year, when the 1944 team coached by the late Carroll Widdoes went unbeaten through a nine-game schedule and won the national "civilian" championship.

Ohio State had no military program such as Iowa with its pre-flight arrangement. Or Army with its Blanchard and Davis.

But the Buckeyes did have a 25-year-old halfback named Les Horvath and some extremely talented 17 and 18-year-old freshmen. Les was three years younger than me so a natural affinity grew between us and the Los Angeles dentist and I have remained friends through the years.

Les was All-American that year along with the great tackle, Bill Willis, end Jack Dugger and guard Bill Hackett. And Les became Ohio State's first Heisman Award winner.

Ohio State had not had an unbeaten, untied team since Chic Harley led the Bucks to the Big Ten title with a 7-0 record in 1916.

But Horvath and his three All-American buddies along with such freshmen as Bob Brugge, Ollie Cline (whose one-game rushing record was broken only two years ago by Archie Griffin), Dick Flanagan, Tom Keane and many others were only one game from this goal when Michigan came to town for the ninth and final game.

As usual, this one was for all the marbles. Captain Gordon Appleby's team developed into a high-scoring machine, scoring more than 25 points in six of its first eight games and showing 269 points to 65 for the eight opponents. Iowa was crushed 34-0. Ohio State scored 54 points against both Missouri and Pitt. And the mixture of old and young Buckeyes seemed to hit a peak as they defeated Paul Brown's Great Lakes team 26-6.

But they still had something special left for Michigan although it was Michigan that led 14 to 12 with seven minutes played in the fourth quarter. That's when Horvath gathered his team around him and detailed exactly what they were to do: Score a touchdown by grinding out 52 yards by giving every last ounce of effort. They couldn't let the chance of the perfect season get away from them.

And they didn't.

There were four first downs in the drive. There wasn't a pass. The 165-pound Horvath, lightest and oldest of all the regulars, picked Michigan apart on the drive, then stayed on the field for defense to make certain the Wolverines didn't match the Ohio State rally. The friendly little guy who averaged six yards a carry that fall led all Buckeyes in playing time with 402 minutes even though he was limited to eight minutes in the Pitt game.

If Horvath wrapped up Heisman honors that day against Michigan, Elyria's Vic Janowicz won the coveted award six years later in a performance against Iowa that defies description.

Vic, who had more natural ability than any athlete I've ever known . . . and this is my 46th football season in one capacity or another . . . did everything but drive the Hawkeyes to the game during an 83-21 massacre.

The date was Oct. 28. The game drew a record 82,174 fans and what a treat they were given by Janowicz, Walt Klevay, Bob Bruney, Sunny Gandee and others. And they didn't waste much time doing it. Janowicz' kickoff went through Iowa's end zone, as did the next three. On Iowa's first play Fashe fumbled and who recovered? Janowicz. Four plays later there was an Ohio State touchdown. The ball carrier? Janowicz. He followed with the first of a record 10 conversion kicks and the slaughter was on.

Les Horvath, Ohio State's first Heisman Winner.

Vic Janowicz is one of three Juniors ever to win the Heisman.

Hopalong Cassidy who won the Heisman trophy in 1954 is the last Big Ten player to win the coveted award.

SPANS GREAT BUCKEYE ERA

It seemed from my excellent vantage point as I paraded up and down the sidelines, that Vic was either knocking Iowa ball carriers down, kicking off or kicking extra points as Ohio State scored three times in the first 5:10 and owned a 35-0 lead at the end of the first quarter. By halftime he had made good on seven of eight extra point kicks to tie a modern Big Ten record for a full game.

Vic had help. But oh what a day he had. Ohio State picked off five Iowa passes and recovered seven of eight Iowa fumbles. And this was a Hawkeye team that had beaten Southern Cal 20-14 and won over Purdue 33-21. A week earlier, Purdue shocked the football world by ending Notre Dame's 39-game winning streak. OSU fans remember what Vic did, but they forget that Iowa came in here with a fine reputation.

Now we come to another of my all-time favorites, a home-grown product I had picked a few years before as the Central Ohio High School Football Player of the Year. That would be Howard (Hopalong) Cassady.

Small, not very fast but wiry and with great desire and good football sense, Cassady had many brilliant days through four seasons as a Buckeye. I'd like to touch on one.

Twice an All-American and the Heisman winner in 1955, the Central High School product enjoyed instant success at Ohio State. As a freshman he played in all nine games, averaged 4.5 yards a try on 65 carries and caught 13 passes for 192 yards. Each year he improved on his rushing figure, 514 as a sophomore, 701 as a junior and 958 his senior year, giving him 2466 yards for 435 attempts, a 5.6 average spread over 36 games.

Typical of the inspiration given by this small but extremely confident red-head was the run he turned in against Wisconsin in 1954 in a showdown of Big Ten powers. Ohio took a 3-0 lead on a Tad Weed field goal but trailed Wisconsin 7-3 at the half. Late in the third period Cassady turned the game around. He intercepted a Bob Miller pass on the 12 and took off for the West sidelines, breaking tackles, dodging others. He was pinned in nearing the Wisconsin 40 but a head fake left the last Badger between Hop and the goal line zigging when he should have zagged and this lifted the Buckeyes so high they went on to trample Wisconsin 31 to 14.

Hop pulled these miracles out of the hat time and again. But none was more dramatic than his long run against Wisconsin.

Another game I won't forget for a long time, nor will the 82,935 fans who witnessed it in the Stadium, was the Iowa game of Nov. 16, 1957. That was the day a red-headed sophomore from Kentucky, Bob White, showed the world why Woody puts so much trust in his fullbacks.

Archie Griffin races 30 yards for the winning touchdown in Ohio State's 14-11 win over Michigan.

White not only outgained all the Hawkeyes 157 yards to 155 but he carried on seven of eight rushes into the line on a 68-yard march that gave the Buckeyes a come-from-behind 17-13 victory in the fourth quarter.

After runs, of four, nine, 29, five, 11 and three yards, the 215-pound battering ram scored from the five after a great fake by Frank Kremblas with 3:53 to play. White said, "It was easy. There was the goal line and those roses (Rose Bowl) smelled so good." Some of his teammates were Leo Brown, Galen Cisco, Bill Jobko, Danny Fronk and Dick LeBeau, who starred for years for the Lions.

How can you forget tackle Jim Marshall scoring twice on a blocked punt and a deflected pass to tie Purdue in 1958, the great show the Boilermakers' Leroy Keyes put on in 1967 or the rude jolt Jack Tatum, Rex Kern and company handed Leroy and Purdue the next year? There were so many great shows staged by Jim Stillwagon, Tatum, Kern, Jan White, Tim Anderson, Bruce Janowski, Mike Sensibaugh, etc., etc. As sophomores they were glued together by old timers Rufus Mayes and Dave Foley.

Michigan games have been a thrill-a-minute. Few surpassed the 1972 game won by Ohio State 14-11. Michigan had the ball for 83 plays to Ohio State's 44. But a great OSU defense blunted the Wolverine thrust time and again. Seven times Michigan had the ball on the Ohio one. But the Wolverines got into the end zone only once as Pete Cusick, Van De Cree, Arnie Jones, Doug Plank and Neal Colzie, all current Bucks, and former OSU players George Hasenohrl, Shad Williams, Charlie Beecroft, Mike Scannell, Randy Gradishar and Rick Middleton turned them back. Archie Griffin and Champ Henson, running behind the incomparable John Hicks, had too much offensive punch for the No. 3 ranked Michigan team this day.

MCQ Readymix with limestone aggregate assures the permanence of Ohio Stadium, completed over 50 years ago, and our limestone is the maintenance-free foundation for the stadium's artificial turf. MCQ products have been used in several other major OSU campus structures, including St. John's Arena and Morrill and Lincoln Towers.

Limestone products enhance opportunities for unique architectural designs, and the purity of limestone helps preserve design attractiveness, as illustrated by Ohio Bell's Southwestern Area Headquarters Building.

The tallest structure in Columbus, the new 650-foot State Office Tower, was constructed with 100 percent crushed limestone concrete from MCQ Industries.

We're helping O.S.U. and Columbus grow.

We're pleased that MCQ products have contributed to the growth of The Ohio State University . . . and to the growth of Central Ohio. # J. EDWARD WEAVER – The Director of Athletics

J. Edward Weaver was named Director of Athletics at The Ohio State University October 14, 1970. He is only the third person to hold this position since Ohio State entered the Big Ten in 1913.

Prior to being appointed Director of Athletics, Weaver had been associated with The Ohio State University or its Alumni Association in various administrative positions since 1946. Initially he served as field secretary for the Alumni Association. In 1950 he became assistant athletic director and director of ticket sales. In 1953 he was named administrative assistant to the Vice President in charge of Business and Finance. Ed returned to the Athletic Department in 1957 as Associate Athletic Director and remained in this capacity until 1970.

As Director of Athletics, Ed inherited an extensive 18 sport intercollegiate program, a fine physical plant, except that Ohio Stadium, built in 1922, was visibly showing its age, and an operating budget that was straining to ward off the ravages of inflation.

Weaver immediately set about to increase the revenue rather than cut back the budget. He quickly sought, and received permission, to add a tenth football game which increases the income.

In 1972 he scheduled a pre-season professional football game in Ohio Stadium that sold out. A similar game was played in 1973 and 1974.

The Ohio State University Athletic Department extends a warm and cordial welcome to members of the 1916, 1917, and 1918 Buckeye football teams.

The 1916 Ohio State team has a special place in the hearts of all Buckeye football fans, for this was the first Ohio State team to win a Big Ten football championship. The 1916 team was undefeated and untied.

The 1917 Ohio State team repeated as Big Ten Champions. It too went undefeated.

In 1918 World War I played havoc with manpower in college. While Ohio State fielded a team, many of its standout players were in the service. The schedule was curtailed to six games and Ohio State managed to win three in those difficult days.

We are saddened that many from these teams are no longer with us, but to those of you who are present, we welcome you and extend our very best wishes.

This year Ohio State will play an eleventh football game which will further increase the Athletic Department revenue, making possible more and better facilities in the future.

Two such projects of major importance were launched recently. Construction was begun on a new varsity tennis court complex adjacent to the Ernie Biggs Training Facility, and a new running track was installed in Ohio Stadium.

A notable improvement since Weaver became Director, is the installation of artificial turf in the Stadium and on the practice field. In addition, lights have been added to the facade of the Stadium, allowing extensive use of the field for intramurals and physical education classes. Also 53,805 new fiberglass seat covers were added last year to "A" and "C" decks in the Stadium.

Weaver was born in Marysville, Ohio and graduated from Central High School in Lima. He graduated from Ohio State with a B.A. degree in 1933. As an undergraduate Ed played football and basketball.

After graduating from college, Ed worked with a finance company, managing offices in Newark, New Jersey and in several Ohio cities.

During World War II, he served three and one-half years with the Counter Intelligence Corps. He returned to the campus in 1946.

OHIO STATE FOOTBALL COACH —

"WOODY HAYES"

W. W. "Woody" Hayes has been head football coach at The Ohio State University for 23 years. During this period Ohio State football has achieved a degree of excellence unmatched in the University's rich athletic history.

Hayes ranks second among all active major college coaches for most victories, 192. Only Paul "Bear" Bryant has won more. Woody is within eight of the coveted 200 victory total, a milestone reached by only a few college coaches, past or present.

Hayes was born February 14, 1913, at Clifton, Ohio, although he calls Newcomerstown his home. He is a 1935 graduate of Denison University, where he majored in English and history. He played tackle three years and was an outfielder in baseball. He has an M.A. degree from Ohio State in education administration.

His entire coaching career has been within the state of Ohio. He began in 1935 as an assistant at Mingo Junction. His first head coaching job came in 1938 at New Philadelphia High, where, in three seasons, his teams won 19, lost ten and tied one.

A five year stint in the Navy interrupted his coaching career but made a great impact upon his life.

After his discharge, Denison University, his alma mater, gave him his first opportunity to be a head coach in college. The year was 1946. Three years at Denison and two at Miami set the stage for his 1951 debut at Ohio State.

Hayes' record at Ohio State is a remarkable 159 wins, 49 losses and eight ties, a winning percentage of .764, excluding ties. His Buckeye teams have won nine Big Ten championships, six outright and three shared. His Big Ten record is 117-32-7. Since he has coached at Ohio State, the Buckeyes have led the nation in attendance per home game for 21 of the last 23 years.

Numerous honors have been won by Coach Hayes and by his Ohio State teams. He was named "College Coach of the Year" in 1957, and was runnerup for this honor on two other occasions. His teams have won three national championships; won a record 17 straight Big Ten victories two different times (1954-56 and 1967-69); and four Rose Bowl victories. He is past president of the National Football Coaches' Association.

Woody's around-the-clock devotion to football is without parallel. His work-week is seven days and more often than not his daily schedule extends past midnight. Such grueling demands would overwhelm a person 25 years his junior.

A heart attack last June 6 will doubtless bring about some changes in his daily routine. How quickly he recovers will determine what, if any, changes are necessary in his coaching schedule. Chances appear good that he will be on the sidelines for the opener, September 14, at Minneapolis.

Woody has written three books about football, each with a different approach. He has made four trips to Vietnam to talk and visit with service men.

If he has a hobby outside of football it would be history. All periods interest him. Military history holds a special fascination.

He shrugs off mention of relinquishing his coaching duties by saying, "I'll do something else when I find a job I like better." The word "retirement" is not in his vocabulary.

The three qualities that best characterize Woody Hayes are honesty, hard-work and a love of teaching. The latter comes naturally as his father, Wayne Benton Hayes, served as superintendent of schools from 1920 until his death in 1939.

Woody Hayes is many things to many people. He is an era in himself. He is colorful, impatient, unpredictable, generous and unselfish, highly individualistic and deeply patriotic. His coaching career has enjoyed many more peaks than valleys. Success always has been within reach, but controversy is never far away.

As the billboard reads, "In all the world there is only one."

HOMAN JOINS

Ohio State football fans can hear a familiar voice on radio this fall.

Marv Homan, who up until last year had spent 24 consecutive years as the voice of the Buckeyes on WOSU radio, has joined the WTVN broadcasting team. Along with veteran sportscaster Tom Hamlin, he calls the play-by-play action of Buckeye games every Saturday afternoon on WTVN's 42-station network.

Homan dropped out of broadcasting last year when he was named Sports Information Director at Ohio State. He did not stay away long, however. When a vacancy occurred at WTVN, station manager Carl Wagner persuaded the popular Homan to return to the mike for the 1974 season.

"We are delighted to have Marv with us," says Wagner, the man responsible for putting the WTVN network together. "His long and close association with Ohio State athletics makes him a natural to do the games."

"I think that he and Tom give us one of the top broadcast teams in the country."

WTVN BROADCASTING TEAM

With two veteran sportscasters at his disposal, Wagner chose to forego the traditional broadcasting format of one play-by-play man and one color analyst. Instead, Homan and Hamlin each do a half of play calling and a half of color commentary.

"The concept has been well received," says Wagner. "The idea is to get two men, instead of one, who really know the game and can give the fans a more descriptive picture."

"The Rose Bowl uses a similar format with one broadcaster from each school involved, but as far as I know Ohio State is the first school to have this type of coverage on a seasonal basis."

Ohio State was also the first Big Ten school to adopt the one station-one network policy.

The plan was launched last year when WTVN was awarded the exclusive radio rights to all Ohio State football games during the 1973, '74 and '75 seasons.

At that time Ohio State Athletic Director Ed Weaver remarked, "We feel network broadcasting will eventually be adopted by almost every major school. It is the radio of the future."

As if to back up his prophecy, Indiana and Purdue have gone to similar, but not identical, networks this season. Around the Big Ten other member institutions including Michigan State and Minnesota have seriously discussed the concept.

Last year's Ohio State network was 36 stations strong with an outlet in every major Ohio market. This year WTVN is the flagship for 42 other outlets around the state. Although all 42 are in Ohio, the stations on the perimeter of the state allow Buckeye games to be heard in Indiana, West Virginia, Kentucky, Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Programming begins one-half hour before kickoff with the "Woody Hayes Show." A fifteen minute pre-game show is next and then the play-by-play. After the game, two members of the football staff analyze the day's happenings on the "Coaches Show."

FRESHMAN PROFILE

Aaron "Chunky" Brown

Anyone who saw the North-South All-Star Game in Canton this past summer knows why Aaron Brown was one of the most sought after players in Ohio last year.

Brown, a 6-2, 220-pound defensive tackle from Warren Western Reserve, spearheaded a North defense that completely shut off the South attack. The North won the game easily and Brown, who constantly broke through the South line to drop enemy ball carriers, was the top defensive player.

For Brown, the All-Star Game marked the end of a great high school career. He earned all-Ohio honors both as a junior and a senior and last year was named Lineman of the Year by United Press International. In addition to playing in the Ohio All-Star Game, he also was named to the Ohio all-star team that traveled to Hershey, Pa. to meet the Pennsylvania all-stars.

Although Aaron made his reputation as a lineman, he has been moved to middle linebacker at Ohio State. The shift was a natural one for Brown, because of his speed, quickness and mobility—three essential ingredients for a middle linebacker.

"You are going to hear a lot about Aaron before he is through at Ohio State," promises linebacker coach George Hill. "He has great, great speed and oh what a hitter."

Aaron, called "Chunky" by his teammates, is from a family of seven including five boys. During the summer he works on construction in the Warren area. His hobbies are music and hunting.

He is majoring in business at Ohio State.

Good football teams don't just happen. They are the result of long hours of hard work and preparation.

At Ohio State much of that preparation falls to a dedicated staff of assistant coaches who work with head coach Woody Hayes to mold the Buckeyes' fortunes.

During the season, the OSU assistants frequently spend an average of 15 hours a day getting ready for an upcoming opponent. That gruelling schedule starts in mid August and runs through November - and sometimes December.

In the off-season it's speeches, clinics, banquets and recruiting trips.

Let's meet the Buckeye assistants.

Esko Sarkkinen is the senior member of the Ohio State staff. A former All-American end on the Buckeyes' 1939 Big Ten championship team, he began coaching at OSU in 1946. He currently serves as defensive end coach.

Sarkkinen has been in charge of the Buckeye scouting program since 1951 and has long been thought of as one of the top scouts in college football.

Ralph Staub is the football recruiting coordinator and coach of the offensive ends and tackles. He joined the Buckeyes in 1970 after five years at the University of Cincinnati and one year at Northwestern.

The popular Staub is a native of Cincinnati. He attended the University of Cincinnati and was an end on the Bearcats powerful teams of 1949, '50 and '51. He captained the UC team his senior season and received his degree in 1952.

George Hill joined the staff in 1971 as defense coordinator and linebacker coach. He coached at Bowling Green, Findlay college, Denison, Cornell and Duke before coming to the Buckeyes.

In three seasons at Ohio State, Hill's defensive teams have annually ranked among the best in the nation.

Hill graduated from Denison in 1958. At Denison he won four football letters, two as a fullback and two as a tackle.

George Chaump came to Ohio State in 1968 as quarterback coach. Prior to that he spent six highly successful years at John Harris High School in Harrisburg, Pa. where his teams compiled a 58-4 record, won six consecutive Central Pennsylvania titles and had a 35 game winning streak at the time of his departure.

George is a native of West Pittston, Pa. and a 1958 graduate of Bloomsburg State where he played offensive center and guard.

Dick Walker coaches the Buckeyes' defensive backfield. He joined the staff in 1969 after 12 years of coaching experience both on the high school and college level.

In addition to his coaching responsibilities, Walker is responsible for recruiting the Cleveland area.

Dick is a 1955 graduate of John Carroll. In 1960 he became head coach at Columbus Watterson where his 1966 team won the state championship.

Chuck Clausen serves as the Buckeyes' defensive tackle coach and recruits the eastern seaboard. Among his top recruits are Pete Johnson and Nick Buonamici.

Chuck, a native of Iowa, attended the University of New Mexico where he was a three-year letterman both in football and wrestling.

He coached at New Mexico Military Institute and William and Mary College before coming to Ohio State.

Joe Bugel is the offensive guard and center coach. He joined the Buckeye staff in 1974 after ten years as an assistant at three different universities.

Joe comes from Pittsburgh, Pa. and is a graduate of Munhall High. He attended Western Kentucky and won little All-American honors as a senior in 1962.

Joe is an older brother of Tom Bugel who played linebacker for the Buckeyes in the early sixties.

John Mummy joined the Ohio State staff in 1969. He was head freshman coach until 1973 when he was named coach of the varsity reserve team.

John is a native of Painesville, Ohio where he was an all-Ohio halfback. He attended Ohio State and was both a fullback and a quarterback for the Buckeyes during the 1960, '61 and '62 seasons.

Mickey Jackson is the Buckeyes' newest coach. On the staff since last July, Mickey replaces Rudy Hubbard as offensive backfield coach.

Jackson is a 1968 graduate of Marshall University where he won three letters each in football and track. A tailback for the Thundering Herd, he was fourth nationally in scoring in 1965.

Study Shows Women Athletes a Durable Lot

About the only serious damage resulting from women's engaging in vigorous athletic competition is that done to the traditional feminine stereotype, contends Dr. Thomas E. Shaffer, physician at the Ohio State's Health Services.

"Women are capable of strenuous exercise and can undergo training and conditioning to improve skill and physical condition. Within their own groups (women vs. women), I don't see any sport in which they can't compete," he said.

Dr. Shaffer draws his observations in part from a study conducted to determine the types and frequency of injuries incurred by women athletes participating in intercollegiate sports at Ohio State from fall of 1973 to spring of 1974. The study was directed by Dr. Shaffer and Dr. H. Spencer Turner, director of the student health services.

According to the study, which included 241 women athletes, gymnastics showed the highest injury rate and proved to be the most hazardous sport during the year. The other intercollegiate sports ranked in order of highest to lowest injury rate included: basketball, field hockey, competitive swimming, volleyball, track and field, softball, fencing and golf and synchronized swimming tied for last place.

In these sports, the most frequent injuries were sprains, followed closely by strains and contusion or bruises. "The most serious injuries, fractures, concussions, dislocations and lacerations (listed in descending order in the study) occurred very infrequently," he said.

Most people assume that women playing contact sports will have injuries especially in the breast region, Dr. Shaffer said, adding that only one such injury was reported during the year.

Women are not as likely to be injured in contact sports as some may think, because women typically do not generate as much momentum as male athletes, who generally have greater body weight and a greater proportion of lean muscle tissue, he said.

"Another point is that the so-called contact sports do not necessarily involve body contact. Gymnastics is not a contact sport, yet 'contact' does occur between the gymnast, the floor and the equipment," Dr. Shaffer said.

The compilation of information on women's injuries was made possible by an expansion in the medical services for athletes at the university, the sports clinic, in fall of 1973. The clinic, which resumed operation with the beginning of fall quarter, is held in the physical therapy unit of Ohio State's Wilce Student Health Center Monday through Friday from 8:30 to 11 a.m.

Open without appointment to all varsity athletes, male and female, the clinic is staffed by one full-time physician with two other physicians available if needed, head trainer Mike Bordner assisted by student trainers and the physical therapy adviser, Frank Martin. Medical students taking an elective course in sports medicine also help in the clinic.

Last year, the average number of patients seen each morning was 16. Sixty per cent of the clinic patients during the year were women. (All women's athletic injuries are taken care of through the sports clinic; injuries incurred by the some 700 men athletes at the university are administered to by team physicians and trainers under the auspices of the Athletic Department at the Ernie Biggs Athletic Facility and St. John Arena, in addition to the sports clinic).

"Although the sports clinic is not designed primarily for women athletes, they probably benefit most," Dr. Shaffer said. Until the clinic was initiated, there was no ongoing medical program for women athletes, and an injured woman athlete was treated at the center like any injured student. "Even though the Health Center was involved before in pre-participation physicals for women athletes, it was a part-way service," he said.

Dr. Shaffer intends to continue tabulating women's injuries. He wants to make the studies more meaningful by improving methods for keeping track of minor injuries treated on the field of play. In addition, a full-time woman certified athletic trainer will be available to assist with women's athletic injuries at the sports clinic for the coming year.

1975. NOVA'S ALWAYS BEEN GOOD. NOW IT'S BEAUTIFUL.

Economy has taken a turn for the better.

The compact '75 Nova has been emphatically refined along the lines of elegant European sedans. Yet it's more than ever a strong reflection of the Chevrolet engineering tradition.

ANNOUNCING THE LN.

Nova's newfound beauty is ably represented by a whole new kind of Nova, one that just might be precisely right for the times.

You're looking at the 1975 Nova LN—the most luxurious compact in Chevrolet history. The wide-back reclining front seats look and feel like big, soft lounge chairs. The front seat backs adjust to give you the right slant on comfort. And the matching

'75 Nova LN.

To sit in one is to settle on one.

materials and fabrics throughout the car are a classic example of beauty in color coordination. There's also an electric clock and much more that says Nova LN.

ANNOUNCING ALL THE OTHER '75 NOVAS.

The basic '75 Nova, Nova Custom and Nova SS have many things in common with the LN. Styling, comfort, sensible size and sensible prices, to name a few. Thick carpeting, front disc brakes and GM-Specification steel-belted radial ply tires, to name a few more.

Obviously, the beautiful new '75 Nova—with its new front suspension system, trusty six-cylinder engine and new double-panel roof construction—is still a supremely practical Nova.

NOVA'S LOOKING BETTER ALL THE TIME.

We think beauty and practicality go together exceedingly well. And you're cordially invited to make the same conclusion—at your nearest Chevrolet dealer's.

Smith Leads SMU To Winning Ways

Dave Smith, who has compiled winning records in both of his two years as head football coach, is SMU's 10th football coach in 59 years.

He was named the Mustang football coach December 15, 1972.

Last year under Smith, SMU posted a 6-4-1 record as the Mustangs had back to back winning seasons for the first time since 1958-59. SMU finished as the number 10 rushing team in the nation and the Mustangs virtually rewrote the school's rushing records.

In 1972, Smith coached at Oklahoma State and led OSU to its first winning season in 13 years. The 7-4 record included victories over three bowl teams, and three of the losses were by a total of six points. OSU finished the year as the number four rushing team in the country.

Before going to OSU, Smith was the offensive coach for Winnipeg of the Canadian Football League. With Smith running the offense, Winnipeg reached the Canadian League playoffs, placed seven men on the all-league offensive unit, and led the league in every offensive statistical category.

Smith was an assistant coach at SMU from 1963-70. He coached in various offensive and defensive areas and at the time he left in 1970, he was offensive coach. In 1968 with Smith directing the Pony offense, SMU set nearly every Southwest Conference and SMU passing and total offense record with Chuck Hixon at quarterback and established four NCAA records. In 1966 SMU won the SWC championship.

In 1962 Smith was head coach at Sherman High School. His team was a unanimous choice to place last in the district, but the team posted a 7-2-1 record and won the only district championship in the history of the school.

Smith has always been involved in rebuilding in his coaching positions. He rebuilt at Corsicana. He rebuilt at Texas A&I in his first coaching job after graduation. He rebuilt at Sherman. He rebuilt at Winnipeg, and he rebuilt at Oklahoma State. He helped to make them all winners.

The 41-year old Smith was born in 1933 at San Antonio. He played high school football at Lockhart four years and the team established a four-year record of 31-11-1. Smith enrolled at Texas A&M and played quarterback for three years. He received his bachelor of science degree from Texas A&I in 1955 and earned his master of science degree a year later.

Smith varies his offenses to fit the personnel. He has used the wide open passing game and the running oriented attack with equal success. The early teams he coached at SMU and Winnipeg were noted passing teams. At Oklahoma State, the Cowboys virtually rewrote the school offensive records and finished fourth in the nation in rushing with 320 yards per game average on the ground. Last year SMU was the 10th best rushing team in the nation and broke the SMU season rushing record by 1,200 yards.

As a head coach his record stands at 20-10-2. His collegiate record is 13-8-1.

Wave at the Folks, Catch the Ball, Run

by TOM McEWEN, Tampa Tribune Sports Editor
President, Football Writers of America

This year the receiver of a punt in college football may shade his eyes from the sun, or scratch his neck, catch the oncoming ball, and then run with it.

Last year he couldn't. In fact, if he shaded his eyes, or scratched his neck, or both, caught the ball, and ran with it, the ball wasn't just returned to the spot of his reception. It was returned there, and then the receiver and his team were penalized for his illegal fair catch.

Rule was that a Fair Catch Signal meant waving the upraised hand, and arm, back and forth above the head. Any other act with the hand and arm above the receiver's waist wasn't just a no Fair Catch signal, it was an illegal, invalid Fair Catch signal, punishable in yards.

Last January, John Waldorf's NCAA Football Rules Committee figured it was unjust to prevent the shading of eyes (some safetymen resorted to visors), and made a change in College Football Rule 2, Section 7, titled "Fair Catch." The hand (not arm) must still be waved above the head and clearly, but a receiver with a sudden itch above the waist may scratch it, or he may shade his eyes, catch the ball and hot-foot it towards the enemy goal. Specifically, the interpretation now is:

A valid fair catch signal or any other waving signal deprives the receiver of the opportunity to advance the ball and the ball is declared dead at the spot of the catch. If the receiver shades his eyes, or makes any signal other than a waving signal and catches the ball, the ball is live and may be advanced.

Why Get Excited?

Why all this attention to what appears to be a yawner of a rule change?

Because that change represented the 65th alteration in the "Fair Catch" Rule in the 99 years there have been college football rules of any kind. No other single part of the game, a part so seemingly insignificant, has required so much attention, if it can be called insignificant because the truth is that just maybe football as we know it probably was born out of a violation of the Fair Catch rule.

It was 150 years ago when one

William Webb Ellis, playing for Old Bigside Prep School in Rugby, England, violated the rules of rugby when after signalling for a fair catch, instead of legally kicking it back, he ran with it! It wasn't just a rule violation and very unsportsmanlike deed, it was an act that suggested the modern game of football.

On Nov. 23, 1876, the first rules committee met at the Messasoit House in Springfield, Mass. Sixty-one rules were passed at that first conference. Rule No. 28 read: A Fair Catch is a catch made direct from a kick or a throw forward, or a knock on by one of the opposite side, or from a punt-out or a punt-on, provided the catcher makes a mark with his heel, at the spot where he made the catch and no other of his side touch the ball.

Yes, the early signal for fair-catching was heel-marking. Later, he'd have to raise his hand, and heel-mark.

Why not eliminate the rule completely and have no Fair Catch?

Well, that was tried too. It happened in 1954. It lasted one year when cries of outrage arose at the abuse safety men were taking. The step-child rule went back on the books in 1955.

Some of the previous changes:

Oct. 14, 1884—First penalty was put in for interference with a Fair Catch.

May 10, 1890 — If a fair catcher after making his mark be deliberately thrown to the ground, he shall be given five yards unless this would carry the ball across the goal line, in which case one-half of the remaining difference shall be given.

May 8, 1894—A Fair Catch is a catch made direct from a kick by one of the opponents, or a punt-out by one of the same side, provided the man intending to make the catch indicates that intention by holding up his hand when running for the ball and also makes mark with his heel upon catching it.

March 31, 1895—The player making a Fair Catch need not signal with his hand, but must mark with his heel. If he makes no mark, he may run with the ball.

Jan. 12, 1906—A Fair Catch consists in catching the ball, provided the player while advancing towards the ball signals his intention of making a Fair Catch, by raising his hand above his head and does not take more than two steps after catching the ball.

Alfonse and Gaston

March, 1907—Opportunity to make a Fair Catch is where the player is in such a position it would be possible for him to reach the ball before it touches the ground . . . In case a signal is made for a Fair Catch by any player who has the opportunity for a fair catch and another player of his side who had not signalled for a Fair Catch, catches the ball, no run shall be made, nor shall a Fair Catch be allowed.

And so it went, even to last January, when the committee, essentially, made these five changes: (1) Waving the hand (not arm) above the head from side to side more than once is a legal Fair Catch signal; (2) There will no longer be a penalty for an Invalid Fair Catch signal; (3) A player may shade his eyes, catch the ball, and run with it; (4) Any fair catch signal behind the line of scrimmage is ignored; (5) On a Fair Catch, only the player who has given a Fair Catch signal is given Fair Catch protection.

It seems clear that the only thing certain about the Fair Catch Rule is that it will be changed again, and again, and again.

And while we're on the subject, I'd like to suggest one alteration.

The name—Fair Catch—is misleading.

Ought to be Free Catch.

An all-Big Ten selection last year and named to several pre-season All-American teams this year. Buckeye coaches regard him as one of the best tackles in the country. Had exceptionally outstanding games last year against Michigan and Southern California. His 291 minutes of playing time last season was third best on the offense. A very intelligent player who adjusts rapidly to defensive shifts. Kurt was an All-American fullback-linebacker at Lorain High School. He also excelled as a prep wrestler and track man. He would like to become a teacher and coach after graduation.

STEVE MYERS, senior offensive center from Kent. Broke into the Buckeye lineup as a sophomore and has been a regular ever since, missing only the 1973 Rose Bowl game because of mononucleosis. Like Schumacher, Myers is considered a prime All-American candidate. An exceptionally fine technician with great strength. Chosen as one of five captains on this year's team. Was the top offensive lineman against Minnesota, grading out to 77 per cent. Captained his high school football and wrestling teams at Roosevelt High School. His father is the chief of police in Kent. Hobbies are hunting and fishing. Admires Deacon Jones and Joe Green of professional football fame.

SCOTT DANDELLEY, senior offensive tackle from Williamsport, Pennsylvania. Has taken over at right tackle for graduated All-American and Outland Trophy winner John Hicks. Played in nine games last year as a reserve after missing almost all of the 1972 season because of a knee injury. Enjoyed an outstanding freshman year, but the injury has slowed his development. With experience, he should become a fine college tackle. Earned All-Pennsylvania laurels in high school where he captained his football and track teams. Also had a fine prep wrestling career. Majoring in wildlife and fisheries management at Ohio State.

TED SMITH, junior offensive guard from Gibsonburg. Played as a reserve linebacker last year and saw action in nine games. Was shifted to guard last spring to help fill the vacancy created by the graduation of Jim Kregel. Responded quickly to the switch and was a starter by the end of spring drills. Has played very well in the Buckeyes' first two games. Was an all-Ohio fullback-linebacker in high school. Won letters in four sports in high school and captained his football and basketball teams. From a family of six, including five boys.

DICK MACK, a senior offensive guard from Bucyrus. Became a starter last year and led the entire team in playing time with 297 minutes. Small for a college lineman, but makes up for his lack of size with good quickness and agility. A very fine technician who rarely makes a mistake. Can also play center if need be. Was an all-Ohio tackle in high school. His father, the late Ray Mack, was a second baseman for the Cleveland Indians and teamed with Lou Boudreau for one of baseball's greatest double play combinations. His brother, Tom, starred for the University of Michigan and is now an all-pro guard with the Los Angeles Rams. Dick is majoring in international studies and plans to enter law school after graduation.

OHIO STATE SONGS

ACROSS THE FIELD

Fight that team across the field,
Show them Ohio's here,
Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hit them hard and see how they fall;
Never let that team get the ball,
Hail! Hail! the gang's all here,
So let's win that old conference now.

CARMEN OHIO

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship O-hi-o.

BUCKEYE BATTLE CRY

In old Ohio there's a team,
That's known thru-out the land;
Eleven warriors, brave and bold,
Whose fame will ever stand,
And when the ball goes over,
Our cheers will reach the sky,
Ohio Field will hear again

The Buckeye Battle Cry —
Drive! Drive on down the field,
Men of the scarlet and gray;
Don't let them thru that line,
We have to win this game today,
Come on, Ohio!
Smash thru to victory
We cheer you as we go:
Our honor defend
So we'll fight to the end for O Hi o.
